

ERIE-ST. CLAIR LOCAL HEALTH INTEGRATION NETWORK

Listed below are the backgrounds of the founding chair, board members and CEO selected for the Erie-St. Clair Local Health Integration Network.

Chair – Mina Grossman-Ianni (Windsor)

Mina Grossman-Ianni is director of development for the Windsor Symphony Orchestra. From 1985 to 1998, she was head of radio and television for the southwestern Ontario division of the French CBC. From 1995 to 1996, she was director of radio with the French CBC. During the 1970s, she was a broadcast journalist for radio and television, mainly with CBC and Radio-Canada. Grossman-Ianni is very active in the community, having served as a member of the Board of Directors of the Canadian College of Family Physicians and the Board of Directors of the National Gallery of Canada.

Member – David Wright (Forest)

David Wright was executive director of St. Clair Child and Youth Services from 1999 until retiring in the spring of 2005. He also served as executive director of Sertoma Child and Youth Services from 1987 to 1999. Wright's extensive community involvement includes serving as a director and president of Children's Mental Health Ontario, working as a member of the Sarnia-Lambton Children's Services Restructuring Committee, and, most recently, advising on the implementation of "An Ideal Model for Children's Mental Health Services in Southwestern Ontario".

Member – Mary Kwong Lee (Chatham)

Mary Kwong Lee served on the Chatham City Council from 1985 to 1994. She spent most of her professional career as a nurse, including being head nurse in charge of neurosurgery at Vancouver General Hospital. She was the first nurse from an Ontario hospital to train as an environmental infection control officer, becoming an environmental/infection control nurse at Public General Hospital in Chatham from 1969 to 1985. Kwong Lee has performed volunteer work for many community organizations, including the Children's Aid Society, Chatham Public Library and the Multicultural Council.

Chief Executive Officer – Gary Switzer

Gary Switzer, who has been the chief operating officer of Virgin Mobile Canada since 2004, has a wealth of experience in establishing and overseeing major start-up and turnaround ventures in the telecommunications field. This includes being chief operating officer of the Public Telephone Company in Saudi Arabia from 2002 to 2004, vice-president and general manager of Cogeco Cable Inc. from 2000 to 2002, president of Comlink Systems from 1999 to 2000, vice-president and general manager of Microcell Telecommunications Inc. from 1996 and 1999, and various high-level management positions with Rogers Cantel Mobile Communications from 1985 to 1995.