I am pleased to announce that Paul Lee has been appointed as the Manager, Short Term Response with the Health System Information Management Division effective August 27, 2007.

Paul is currently the Toronto site lead for the Health System Intelligence Project (HSIP). He has extensive knowledge of health information data and analytic approaches, and has been managing complex health analytic requests for over 10 years as a team lead and senior health analyst in the Ministry's HSIP project, and the former Health Intelligence Unit Program.
