RE: Announcement of Manager Aboriginal Health Strategy

I am very pleased to announce that Susan Vanstone has been appointed the manager of Aboriginal Health Strategy within the Health System Strategy Division effective June 18, 2007.

As the manager of the Aboriginal Health Unit, Susan will be responsible for leading the development of strategies and policies that will guide the Ministry of Health and Long-Term Care in addressing crucial Aboriginal Health issues. As well she will be providing strategic advice and monitoring the progress of Aboriginal Health initiatives not just within the ministry but with other ministries and governments.

Susan brings with her more than eight years of provincial public policy experience as well as demonstrated excellence in strategic analysis and a personal and professional commitment to Aboriginal Health strategy. Most recently Susan acted as the manager of the Aboriginal Health Unit within the ministry.

Susan comes to this position with a Bachelors Degree in Native and Women's Studies from Laurentian University, an Honours Bachelor of Arts in Communications and Political Science from York University and a Masters Degree in Sociology from the University of Toronto.

Please join me in welcoming Susan to her new role.
